

WORKSHOPS & CONFERENCES

FALL 2010

CARROLL COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S

LEADERSHIP Challenge

Leadership Challenge workshops are open to all students—not just those in the program.
To participate in one of the following programs, please visit the Student Life Office (A118) to register.

SEPTEMBER

LEADERSHIP CHALLENGE KICK-OFF THURSDAY, SEPT. 23 3:30 PM–5:00 PM
Learn about the requirements of the Leadership Challenge and meet your fellow Challengers! This event does not satisfy a Learn/Serve/Lead component but is recommended to successfully complete the Challenge.

EMERGING LEADERS BREAKFAST TUESDAY, SEPT. 28 8:30 AM–9:30 AM
Join our college president and the rest of the executive team for the most important meal of the day! Take this opportunity to learn from great examples of leadership on our own campus. There is a $5 seat deposit for this program.* (LEARN)

OCTOBER

SERVE TRIP TO SERRV INTERNATIONAL FRIDAY, OCT. 1 8:00 AM–3:30 PM
Spend the day at SERRV International, learn about Fair Trade and help “eradicate poverty wherever it resides!” SERRV (Sales Exchange for Refugee Rehabilitation Vocations) works globally in 35 developing countries helping artisans and farmers secure sustainable income for their families. There is a $5 seat deposit for this program.* (SERVE)

LEADERSHIP (HALF-DAY) SEMINAR FRIDAY, OCT. 1 10:00 AM–2:00 PM
You will leave this event with profoundly powerful concepts and tools (and some cool ideas) that you can utilize within your community. The personal empowerment seminar will help you to “Unleash the Mindset of a Champion!” Lunch is included. There is a $5 seat deposit for this program.* (LEARN)

CULTURE AND SERVICE WORKSHOP WEDNESDAY, OCT. 6 3:30 PM–5:00 PM
Cultural competence is an important skill that people need in today’s multicultural society. This workshop will define cultural competence, examine the range of competency levels and discuss how the skill sets relate to service. (LEARN)

MD COMMUNITY COLLEGE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE FRIDAY, OCT. 8 8:30 AM–9:30 PM
Travel to Chesapeake College on Maryland’s Eastern Shore to attend this leadership development conference where you will learn new skills, meet community college student leaders from across the state and attend fun workshops. There is a $5 seat deposit for this program.* (LEARN)

MBTI AND LEADERSHIP MONDAY, OCT. 11 3:30 PM–5:00 PM
Personality preferences affect leadership styles and approaches. Using the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator, learn about the strengths and challenges you might face as a leader. Students who attend this workshop must take the MBTI in the testing center by Wednesday, October 6. There is a $5 seat deposit for this program.* (LEARN)

SERVICE TRIP TO PHILADELPHIA OCT. 15-16
The Center for Service-Learning is sponsoring a service trip to Philadelphia where students will research community interests, create a mural, and assist with other beautification projects for the Fishtown Recreation Center. Cost for this trip is $25. Please see Shawntay Stocks in A118 for more details. (LEARN and SERVE)

POVERTY SIMULATION FRIDAY, OCT 29 10:30 AM–1:30 PM
This workshop provides participants with the opportunity to assume the roles of mid to low-income family members living on a limited budget. The simulation creates awareness for participants who serve clients within this population, and helps them gain a better understanding of the systems that the clients have to navigate to survive. There is a $5 seat deposit for this program. Lunch will be provided.* (LEARN)

*Deposits will be refunded to participants after they have attended the event. Deposits are forfeited by participants who do not attend the program.
