What students are saying...

“Had the best time and learned so much. Sarah was so encouraging that she really opened my eyes to art and made the classes exciting!!”
— Student from Drawing and Painting

Sarah Abel-DeLuca has an MFA from Brooklyn College and has taught art for 20 years at the high school and college levels. Her work has been exhibited in Maryland and New York and hangs in private collections throughout the United States and Europe. As the owner of “Sarah Abel-DeLuca, Artist” (www.abelartist.com), She makes her living as a commissioned painter.

Diane Margiotta has a Master of Fine Arts from Maryland Institute College of Art. She has taught on both the high school and college levels for many years. She loves working in various mediums from painting to ceramics. She has exhibits regularly on the east coast.

Lisa Sheppard, a graduate of MICA, is an interior designer by trade and professional pastel artist. Her paintings have received national awards, publication exposure and top show accolades. She actively promotes fine art and soft pastel through demonstrations and workshops. As a Signature Member of the Maryland Pastel Society, Sheppard’s artwork is represented locally by Gallery 99 in Westminster and can be viewed at www.lisasheppardpastels.com
The Carroll County Community Mediation Center

Offering free mediation services to county residents

The Carroll County Community Mediation Center (CCCMC), a nonprofit community and volunteer based organization, offers free mediation services to help resolve conflicts.

- Mediation is voluntary and confidential
- Mediation lets people speak for themselves and make their own choices.

Mediators are professionally trained volunteers who have completed classroom training, an apprenticeship, a series of evaluations and continuing education. They represent the racial, class, age and educational diversity of Carroll County.

The CCCMC is currently accepting applications for the next Volunteer Mediator Training.

Mediator training is provided by Community Mediation Maryland (CMM) and includes 50 hours of classroom training, and an apprenticeship where trainees observe and then comediate two cases. To be considered, complete and submit a volunteer application. We will contact you to schedule an interview.

Program offered under the auspices of Carroll Community College. The Center is supported by the Maryland Mediation and Conflict Resolution Office.
