

The Carroll Claw | Week of 4/28!

Hi!

The countdown to the end of the semester is on! Finals are only two weeks away. If you're returning to Carroll this summer or fall, make sure to register to get the classes you want at the dates and times that work best for your schedule. If you're graduating, make sure to apply for graduation. Is your next step a new career? Make an appointment with Career Development to review your resume, get help with job searching, or complete a mock interview.

You Could Win Carroll Swag by Completing the Student Satisfaction Survey!

It's the second week for the Student Satisfaction Survey and there are still more people we would like to hear from. The responses to this survey gives the College valuable feedback to better understand the student experience and identify potential improvements. Your input is anonymous and voluntary.

Please check your Carroll email account for the survey link and respond before the survey closes on Monday, May 5. Three lucky survey respondents will randomly be awarded Carroll swag – will you be one of the winners?

We're Looking for Talented Carroll Students to Write Articles!

Know another Carroll student or alumni who has an inspiring story? Want to highlight the great work a Carroll professor or staff member is doing? Have something else cool to share about Carroll? We'd love to hear about it!

Why write for us:

- Get mentored by a professional writer/editor.
- Your article will be published on Carroll's website and shared on social media.
- Your article may be published in SPARK Magazine, mailed out to ~30,000 homes.
- Use your article to build your writing portfolio.

If you think you have an interesting subject you'd want to write about, just pitch your article idea
