I understand that:

- The Gifted and Talented program is a selective admissions program.
- Students must meet the listed admissions requirements for the Gifted and Talented program to be considered for admission.
- Admission for the Gifted and Talented Program is subject to final approval from the Admissions Office.
- The student will be in a primarily adult environment where the average age of students is 18 and older with a wide variety of ages in college classes.
- Many courses deal with adult subject matter and there will be no modification of course content for underage students. Students should expect that mature content is common in many college courses, regardless of the course title. For example, psychology, sociology, criminal justice and many other classes contain mature subject matter; students should assume they will.
- The student will be held to the standards established by the faculty member stated in the course syllabus.
- Students must fulfill course pre-requisites to enroll in specific course.
- The college is not responsible for providing transportation for students. Parents/ Guardians are responsible for transportation. The college does not take on a supervisory role for students on campus. Parents may not accompany students to class unless they are also enrolled in said class.
- Once your students begin courses at Carroll Community College, they are protected by FERPA, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. The College cannot disclose any information from a student's record without the student's consent. Faculty will also not meet with a parent regarding a student's performance unless the student is present. Consent forms are available in the Records and Registration Office A112.
- Students must obtain an official Maryland photo identification (see the MVA in Westminster).
